DAYS OF YESTERYEARS

1947 - This was the year that 60 eager, bright-eyed youngsters started on the road to learning. We were as mischievous a group as Mills River had ever seen, as our teachers were soon to learn. We spent most of our time playing and learning to interpret those strange black marks in our books.

1948-50 - During these years we slowly learned that the world was a much larger place than we had ever dreamed. In the fourth grade we discovered Robinson Crusoe, Lassie, and that we had long division to do.

1951 - What we probably remember most about this year is our operetta, "Down Among the Fairies." We all worked hard and it was a big success. I think it will be many years before we forget Johnny Appleseed or Cinderella.

1952-53 - By this time our class had diminished to forty and we were all in Miss Keith's room. We probably studied harder this year than ever before.

1954 - Over the summer we had changed from children to teenagers. For the first time we were old enough for lipstick, high heels, and friends of the opposite sex. There is a question as to how much we learned but we can truthfully say that we enjoyed every moment of the year, except maybe the lickings Mr. Pryor gave the boys, or the times the girls had to copy the Constitution. Of course the girls didn't do anything except climb in the windows when the door was locked and were sitting in the room when Mr. Pryor unlocked the door and came in.

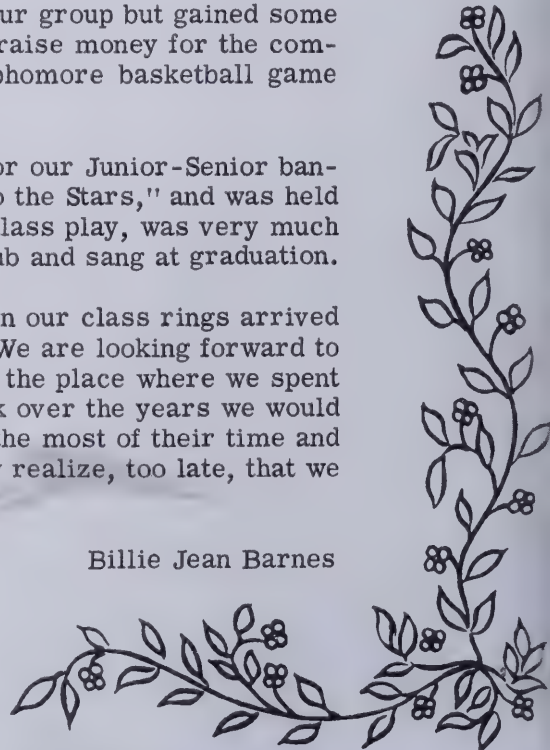

1955 - So we were finally in high school! We were a little confused, but we finally learned our way around. We felt more at home when several from our group were chosen for the basketball teams and two were picked as cheerleaders. We joined many of the clubs and were soon hard at work.

1956 - This year we lost several old members of our group but gained some new ones. We promoted several projects to raise money for the community building, such as the Freshman-Sophomore basketball game which we enjoyed.

1957 - We were kept quite busy this year with plans for our Junior-Senior banquet. Our banquet had the theme, "Stairway to the Stars," and was held at Echo Inn on May 2nd. "Coveralls," our class play, was very much enjoyed by all. Many of us joined the Glee Club and sang at graduation.

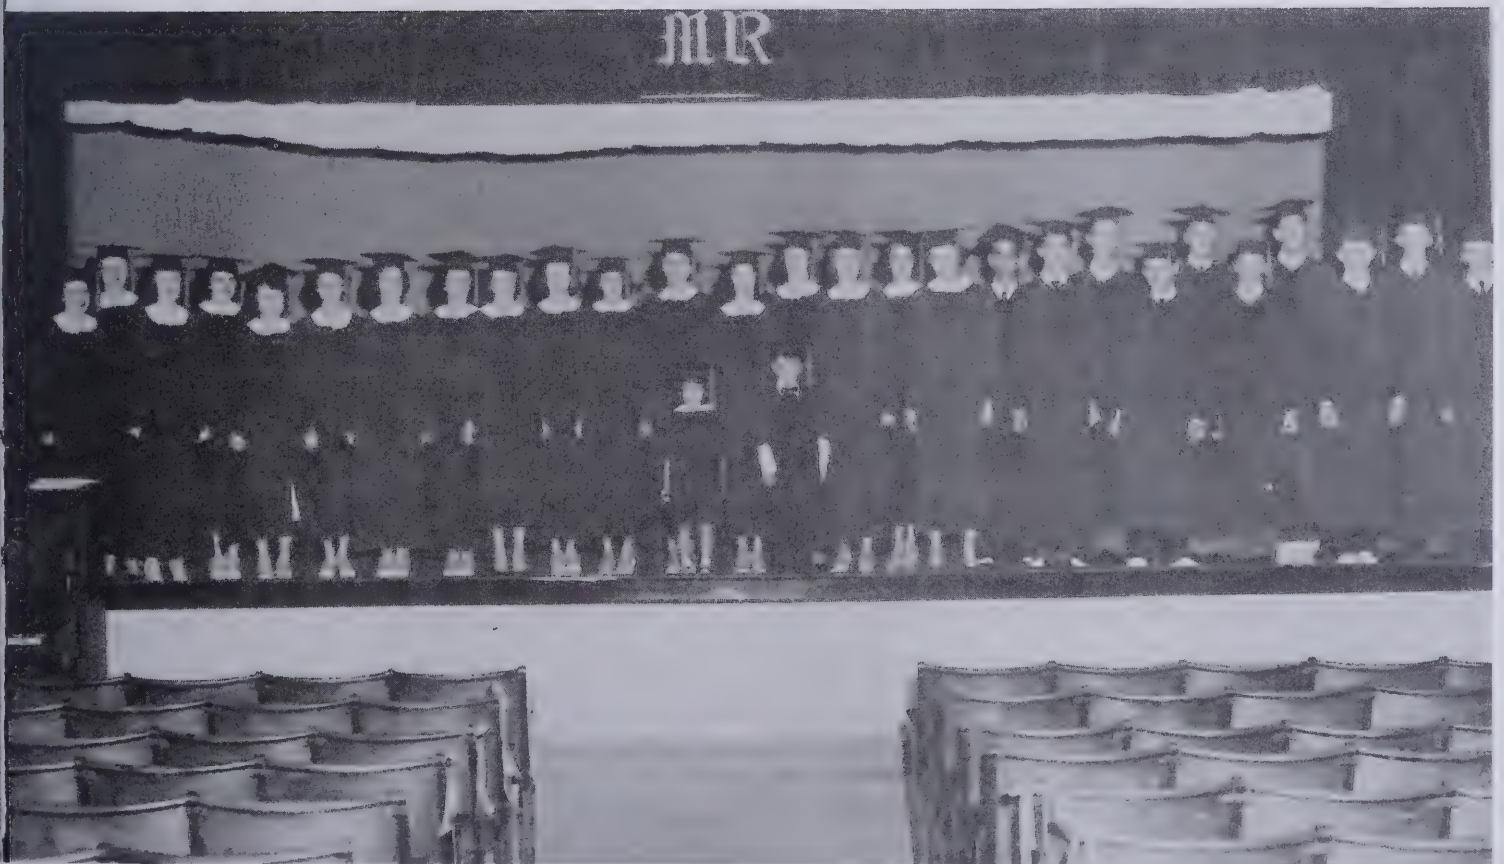

1958-59 - Seniors at last! We were very happy when our class rings arrived and we continue to wear them with pride. We are looking forward to graduation, but we will regret having to leave the place where we spent so many happy years. And now as we look back over the years we would like to advise our under-classmen to make the most of their time and do their best in their studies. Many of us now realize, too late, that we have wasted many valuable hours of our time.
